

August 17, 2015

Press Release

Register of Interests of the Members of the House of Assembly

The Integrity Commission wishes to advise that the Register of Interests of Members of the House of Assembly, covering the period ending 31 December, 2014 has been completed and is now ready for public inspection.

Under section 25 of the Integrity Commission Ordinance 2008 as amended, all persons in public life (including Members of the House of Assembly) are required to file with the Integrity Commission, declarations of their income, assets and liabilities and those of their spouses and dependent children once every two years on or before the 30 June of the year in which filing is required. This is otherwise called the “Section 25 Declaration”, and it is strictly confidential.

In addition to filing the Section 25 Declaration, Members of the House of Assembly are further required by the Constitution and the Ordinance, to file with the Commission, once every year, Statements of Registrable Interests of themselves and those of their spouses and dependent children. These Registrable Interests are not confidential.

The Commission would therefore wish to inform members of the public that the Hon. Members of the House of Assembly have all filed their Statements of Registrable Interests. The Commission has compiled these Statements of Registrable Interests and produced the Register of Interests of the Members of the House of Assembly for the period ending 31 December, 2014.

The Register of Interests is now available for public inspection at every sitting of the House of Assembly in Grand Turk. It is also available for inspection at the Offices of the Integrity Commission in Grand Turk and Providenciales during the hours of 8:00am to 4:30pm from Mondays to Thursdays and 8:00am to 4:00pm on Fridays, starting Monday 17 August, 2015.

The Register of Interests can also be inspected in the family Islands at the respective Offices of the District Commissioners during normal working hours.