

Press Release

The Integrity Commission of the Turks and Caicos Islands is currently undertaking several investigations and, in this regard, subjects may be interviewed, and/or arrested for questioning, and/or charged.

This morning, in a joint operation by the Integrity Commission and the Royal Turks and Caicos Islands Police Force, a former Commissioner of Labour of the Turks and Caicos Islands was arrested for questioning on suspicion of corruption.

It is anticipated that the former Commissioner will be bailed pending further investigations by the Integrity Commission.

As these are live investigations, the Integrity Commission will not comment any further on this matter at this time.

Further press releases may follow.
